IRONMENT

CURRENT SITUATION

- Weather: A mix of sun and cloud with 30 percent chance of light snow. Wind up to 15 km/h. High minus 14. Wind chill minus 26 this morning and minus 21 this afternoon. UV index 1 or low.

Regina Police Service:

- RPS is continuing to support the Provincial Capital Commission through special duty members at the barricaded sites around the Legislature through the weekend.
- Social media sources indicate that the Freedom convoy plans to leave Regina February 12th at noon to border crossing. (see posters below)

Provincial Capital Commission:

- Movement of barricades to begin Monday morning; the current entrances will be used until the barricades are relocated, with a new setup to be in place around noon.
- New barricade locations will be located at Legislative Drive and Memorial, Avenue D and E south of the Legislative Building.
- Partner resources will no longer be required as of Monday, Feb. 14
- Community Safety Officers (CSO's) will be utilized to staff the barricades through to February 20th, covering 24 hours a day.
- If information changes, other staffing/barricade options may have to be considered.

Ministry of Government Relations

- Senior officials conveying appreciation for work that is occurring.
- Commitment from executive government to continue with efforts.

Ministry of Government Relations Communications:

- Preparing an internal email and media release to support the barricade shift for Monday.
- Key messaging to ensure public and traffic safety throughout the grounds in coming weeks, and information on the success of measures during the Frost Festival and some new improved traffic and parking measures.

Corrections, Public Safety, and Policing

- Can assist with staffing February 21st and beyond if needed.

Ministry of Environment

- Will discuss staffing needs with the Provincial Capital Commission offline.

Legislative Assembly

- Continuing to work with external partners.

CRITICAL ISSUES/CHALLENGES/PROBLEMS

Provincial Capital Commission

- Scheduled CSO annual leave will impact staffing beyond February 20th, and may be looking for scheduling support depending on situation.

PLANNED ACTIVITIES

- Coordination calls to occur at 11:00am daily throughout the weekend between Regina Police Service, Ministry of Government Relations, Provincial Capital Commission, and Saskatchewan Legislature, facilitated by the Provincial Emergency Operations Center.
